Careers In & Landing In Schedule
Fall 2015 & Spring 2016

October 7: Landing In Law
12:00 – 1:00 PM, Curb Conference

October 26: Careers In Psychology
6:00 – 8:00 PM, Freeberg Forum

October 28: Landing In Psychology
12:00 – 1:00 PM, Curb Conference

November 9: Careers In Education
6:00 – 8:00 PM, Founder’s Room

November 11: Landing In Education
12:00 – 1:00 PM, Curb Conference

January 25: Careers In Nonprofit
6:00 – 8:00 PM, Freeberg Forum

January 27: Landing In Nonprofit
12:00 – 1:00 PM, Curb Conference

February 8: Careers In Government
6:00 – 8:00 PM, Freeberg Forum

February 10: Landing In Government
12:00 – 1:00 PM, Curb Conference

NOTE: Other Careers In, Landing In, and our Personal & Professional Development workshops can be found on ClaremontConnect.

Check Out:
The Graduate School Games Symposium [October 9, 2015]
1:00 – 4:00 PM, Freeberg Forum & Surrounding Classrooms
Panelist Profiles

Emerald Berg ’06, Asst. Public Defender
Emerald currently serves as an Assistant Public Defender for the Orange County Public Defenders office. She graduated from CMC in 2006 with degrees in government & film. After college, she taught English in Korea on a Fulbright grant. Emerald later earned a masters degree in human rights law from the University of Cape Town, while serving as a Rotary Ambassadorial scholar, and a J.D. from Washington & Lee School of Law in Lexington, VA.

Eve Filip ’01, Deputy General Counsel
Eve serves as a Deputy General Counsel with the Rubicon Project in Playa Vista, CA. In this role, she is the chief lawyer and source of legal support for the organization. In prior roles, Eve worked as an Associate General Counsel for both Sony Pictures Entertainment and with Ascent Media. Eve graduated with her B.A. in Politics, Philosophy, & Economics from CMC. She went on to study International Human Rights Law at Central European University and earn her J.D. in Law from Columbia Law School.

Hon. Suzanne Segal ’82, Chief Magistrate Judge
Suzanne serves as the Chief Magistrate Judge for the Central District of California. In this role, she provides leadership and oversight to the Central District of California Magistrate Judges. Previously, Suzanne served as a Magistrate Judge and worked as an Assistant United States Attorney in the Civil Division. Suzanne graduated with a B.A. from Claremont McKenna College. She went on to earn her J.D. in Law from Cornell Law School.

Elenor Taylor ’81, Adjunct Professor
Elenor serves as an Adjunct Professor of Legal Studies at Kaplan University’s College of Social and Behavioral Sciences. She facilitates online courses, real-time discussions, and assesses written assignments for the program. Previously, Elenor has worked as an instructor and has served as the Director of Alumni Relations, both at CMC. Elenor graduated with a B.A. in Political Science & Religion from Claremont McKenna College. She went on to earn her J.D. in Law from the George Washington University Law School.

Your Thoughts & Ideas

Notes Page

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________