Claremont McKenna College (CMC) provides a unique education that blends a liberal arts curriculum with a distinct focus on career and leadership preparation.

CMC draws upon the liberal arts, with a focus on the humanities, arts and sciences, to define your critical thinking skills, decision-making, interpersonal communication and intellectual development. These skills are utilized in hands-on professional development experiences that build a strong resume and prepare you for a dynamic and meaningful career.

See yourself at CMC? Apply: cmc.edu/admission/apply
Visit: cmc.edu/admission/visit
Learn more: cmc.edu/admission/brochures
Deadlines
• Early Decision I Deadline: November 1
• Early Decision II Deadline: January 5
• Regular Decision Deadline: January 5
• Block Scholarship Consideration Deadline: December 1
Get more information: connect.cmc.edu/register/request-information

Academic Year 2018–2019
Office of Admission and Financial Aid
888 Columbia Avenue
Claremont, CA 91711
Phone: +1 909-621-8088
Fax: +1 909-621-8516
admission@cmc.edu

About 6,000 undergrads within the 5Cs

Claremont, California
Take advantage of the region’s amazing climate and recreational opportunities at CMC, located in an idyllic college town just 50km from Los Angeles and close to Southern California’s world-class beaches and mountains.

Follow us on social media:
@cmcadmission
facebook.com/cmcadmission
youtube.com/claremontmckenna
twitter.com/cmcmcnews

Silicon Valley
San Diego
San Francisco
Los Angeles
Silicon Beach
LAX Airport
Ontario Airport

The Claremont Colleges are a consortium of five undergraduate colleges (the 5Cs) and two graduate institutions located within an area of 2.6 km². The consortium includes Claremont McKenna, Harvey Mudd, Pitzer, Pomona, and Scripps colleges, along with Claremont Graduate University and Keck Graduate Institute.

KECK GRADUATE INSTITUTE
Founded 1997
594 Students

The Claremont Colleges
are a consortium of five undergraduate colleges (the 5Cs) and two graduate institutions located within an area of 2.6 km². The consortium includes Claremont McKenna, Harvey Mudd, Pitzer, Pomona, and Scripps colleges, along with Claremont Graduate University and Keck Graduate Institute.

The Claremont Colleges (I-Place)
Serving all seven Claremont Colleges, I-Place is an exciting hub of international activity throughout the year. It is a “home away from home” for students from abroad, serving as a resource and center for cultural exchange.
ipoffice@cmc.edu

Follow us on social media:
@cmcadmission
facebook.com/cmcadmission
youtube.com/claremontmckenna
twitter.com/cmcmcnews

International Place of The Claremont Colleges (I-Place)
Serving all seven Claremont Colleges, I-Place is an exciting hub of international activity throughout the year. It is a “home away from home” for students from abroad, serving as a resource and center for cultural exchange.
ipoffice@cmc.edu