Annual Disclosure of Statistics

California Education Code 68370(a) requires Claremont McKenna College ("College") to compile records of hate violence and noncriminal hate violence committed on campus. Each year, the College must report instances of hate violence to the College’s Board of Trustees, who in turns sends the report to the California Legislative Analyst’s Office by January 1st. The Report will be available each year on the College’s website at:

Definition of Hate Violence

Hate violence means any act of physical intimidation or physical harassment, physical force or physical violence, or the threat of physical force or physical violence, that is directed against any person or group of persons, or the property of any person or group of persons because of the ethnicity, race, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, disability, or political or religious beliefs of that person or group.
