

WELCOME CLAREMONT COLLEGE STUDENT!

The Chaplains of The Claremont Colleges seek to serve the spiritual needs of all communities, and we are delighted to be of service to students, faculty, and staff, of all religious backgrounds.

We invite you to join us at McAlister Center of Religious Activities for prayer, conversation or to attend one of our weekly spiritual group meetings, worship services, major holiday observances, celebrations and events throughout the year.

At the McAlister Center we're here to help you connect with other students of your particular faith and to bridge the gap of diversity through meaningful multi-faith events and community service opportunities. The Chaplains help many student-led groups form each year – contact us to see how you can get involved.

Connect with other students of faith at our Open House - meet our team of Chaplains & find out how to get involved in social justice through our Community Service Office. List of events on back page.

To opt-in and receive emailed invitations to holiday events, community service opportunities and other special events, please fill out and return the enclosed postcard or stop by for a visit.

The McAlister Center of Religious Activities is located at the center of the campuses - corner of 10th and Columbia, next to Honnold Library.

We look forward to meeting you,

*Fr. Joe Fenton, Rev. Leon Wood, Jr.,
& New Interim Rabbi & Muslim Chaplain*
