457(B) DEFERRED COMPENSATION PLAN

PLAN OVERVIEW

- The 457(b) Plan was established to provide eligible employees with an opportunity to defer current taxable income and enhance retirement accumulation
- The Plan is defined as a Section 457(b) plan under the Internal Revenue Code
- The 457(b) Plan does not replace the basic Academic Retirement Plan (ARP), which is a defined as Section 403(b) plans under the Code
- The Plan is intended to complement the retirement accumulation available under the ARP and provide a mechanism for additional tax deferred retirement savings
- TIAA-CREF is the record keeper for the 457(b) Plan

- The base salary threshold will be increased by 3% on January 1st of each Plan Year

- Salary Reduction Agreements may be obtained by contacting Loo Hsing, Retirement Supervisor by email at loo.hsing@claremont.edu.

DEFERRED COMPENSATION OPPORTUNITY & LIMITS

- The 457(b) Plan allows participants to make elective deferrals on a tax deferred basis
- The calendar year 2022 basic tax deferral limit is $20,500

- It is recommended that you maximize deferrals in the ARP first and use the 457(b) Plan for any additional deferral opportunity. Catch-up contributions are also permitted under the 457(b) plan as follows:
 - ◊ In certain situations, you may be able to contribute even more than the annual contribution limit. If you are within 3 years of the Plan's normal retirement age (i.e., age 65), you may contribute the lesser of:
 - a) Twice the normal annual limit for that year, or
 - b) The annual limit for that year, plus any underutilized contributions from prior years in which the Plan was in place, where you did not contribute the maximum amount allowed.

Regulations governing 457(b) plans of private, not-for-profit corporations require that the plans be unfunded. This means that, unlike the 403(b) plans, the assets of the 457(b) Deferred Compensation Plan remain assets of the corporation and the corresponding obligation to Plan participants is a general obligation of the corporation.

Track 1 - Vanguard Target Retirement Funds: These funds are professionally managed mutual funds that provide automatic asset allocation based on a target retirement date. In general, each fund is designed for investors who have a specific target retirement year in mind and each fund's investments are adjusted from more aggressive to more conservative as a target retirement year approaches. As with all mutual funds, the principal value of a target retirement fund isn't guaranteed. Also, please note that the target date of each fund is an approximate date when investors may plan to begin withdrawing from the fund. There are currently 12 Vanguard Target Retirement Funds that comprise Track 1.

Track 2 - TIAA Accounts: Track 2 provides access to TIAA products with a range of asset classes and lifetime income options.

Track 3 - Index Funds: Track 3 affords participants the opportunity to invest in a selection of passively managed funds that track segments of the overall market and achieve asset diversification with lower expenses compared to actively managed funds. Vanguard has a reputation for being “the low-cost provider” in the industry and a hallmark of Vanguard’s philosophy is the belief that minimizing cost is vital for long-term investment success. Track 3 includes seven Vanguard index funds representing seven separate broad asset classes: Fixed Income, Total US Stock Market, US Large Cap Blend, US Mid Cap Blend, US Small Cap Blend International and Money Market.

Track 4 - TIAA Self-Directed Brokerage Account: The TIAA Self-Directed Brokerage Account is available to participants who are interested in having access to broader investment markets than is available in Tracks 1, 2 and 3. Participants can select from thousands of mutual funds, including funds with or without transaction fees. Fee-based mutual funds can be accessed at $35.00 per trade; however, this can be limited to a one-time charge when using the Automatic Investment Plan (AIP). Minimum initial investment is $5,000; minimum subsequent investments are $1,000. Participants who choose to invest in Track 4 will need to enroll online and acknowledge that they are investing at their own risk with full understanding that funds offered under Track 4 are not monitored by The Claremont Colleges. This track is intended for sophisticated investors who will be able to navigate the broader universe of mutual funds. Only mutual fund investments and exchange traded funds (ETFs) are permitted under the Self-Directed Brokerage Account. For more information on the Self-Directed Brokerage Account, call 800-927-3059 to speak to a TIAA individual consultant who specializes in brokerage services.

Tracks 1 through 3 are considered “core” investment options and as such, these options are selected and monitored with the assistance of an outside investment advisor.

Track 4 allows access to thousands of mutual funds outside of the core through a self-directed brokerage account.
